CLOSING DATE WEDNESDAY 07 SEPTEMBER 2016
Located in the heart of the Auvergne volcanoes, the commune of Châtel-Guyon is the territory of Volvic, Sources and volcanoes, in an environment of great authenticity.
Ancient winegrower village become the expensive spa to Guy de Maupassant, Châtel-Guyon is a great example of city of water born at the beginning of the 19th century.
By exploiting the waters, Châtel-Guyon has known between 1902 and 1908 an unprecedented boom and attracted the “Belle Époque” customer, as evidenced by thermal heritage and exceptional architecture. Balneology and tourism remain the largest employers in town, anxious to pursue its economic development. Floral City, Châtel-Guyon offers also a preserved nature: ‘green belt' 135 hectares of forests living, generous, and in harmony with the activity of men, pitted roads, bodies of water, course of health and an arboretum trail, witness the richness and the variety of forest trees.

EXTRACT OF THE RULES OF THE NATIONAL EXHIBITIONS CANINE of the SADB

ARRIVAL and JUDGEMENT
Access to the exhibition is open to dogs from 9 am Saturday and 8 am Sunday. Judging will begin on Saturday at 10 am exact and Sunday at 9 am. The numbers of dogs are to be collected at the Entry Table with catalogue. All dogs from abroad and countries infected should be vaccinated against rabies. TAN tests will take place only on Saturday from 10h to 15h30.

DEPARTURE OF DOGS
Dogs can depart after judgment or after the ring of honor for dogs that are selected for this presentation. However the young best designated subject must be present on Sunday to compete for the "best in show".

POSTER
Breeders names are allowed to appear on a panel 45 cm high and 35 cm wide, the name, address and the telephone number of the kennel. Any unauthorized distribution of flyers by organizers is prohibited within the confines of the exhibition.

VETERINARY SERVICE
The veterinary service will be provided by a veterinary surgeon. At the entry and during the show, the vet has full authority, to decide on acceptance, refusal or dismissal of any dangerous dogs, dogs seemed sick or suffering from skin disease of dogs obviously pregnant or lactating. The veterinary decision is without appeal. In the case of refusal of an entry by the veterinary service, the Entry Fee will not be refunded.

REGULATION OF ENTRIES
The full amount of entries must be paid in the same time that the entry form is attached below is sent. International payment by money order or bank transfer only. Payment is possible by the Paypal service or by credit card: https://www.apuyer.fr/SADB.

CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRIES
The closing date of entries is Wednesday 3rd of September. Any entries received after the closing date (Date of postmark) will be refused.

REFUSAL AND EXCLUSIONS
- Entries: The organizer reserves the right to refuse an entry and no correspondence will be entered into.
- Dogs (their lobby display or in the exhibition)
- Those rejected by the veterinary service,
- Those who have been substituted for actual dogs entered. The Entry Fee in this case will not be refunded.
- Those not employed by the exhibitor whose entry to the exhibition is strictly prohibited
- Those who's the entry form was not received by the closing date.

JUDGEMENTS
The judges officiate alone, their responsibility is personal. They may be assisted in their ring by a secretary, an assessor, a Deputy Judge, an Interpreter (this position can be held in any case by trainee or a qualified judge of the race in question). If a Judge defaults, they may be replaced by his deputy or any other qualified judge or intern for the same race. A second judge will be appointed if the number of dogs is over 60, for confirmed entries. Judgments' are final and final when pronounced. Dogs that are fearful or aggressive will be automatically eliminated by the judge. In any case, the dog concerned will be removed from the competition and will be discussed later. The judges will award by the value of the dog in one of the qualifying levels which are defined as follows. EXCELLENT may only be awarded to a dog which comes very close to the ideal standard of the breed, which is presented in excellent condition, displays a harmonious, well-balanced temperament, is of high class and has excellent posture. Its superior characteristics in respect of its breed permit that minor imperfections can be ignored; it must however have the typical features of its sex. VERY GOOD may only be awarded to a dog which possesses the typical features of its breed, which has well-balanced proportions and is in correct condition. A few minor faults may be tolerated but none of a morphological nature. This award can only be granted to a dog that shows class. GOOD is to be awarded to a dog that possesses the main features of its breed however showing faults provided these are not concealed. SUFFICIENT must be awarded to a dog which corresponds adequately to its breed, without possessing the generally accepted characteristics or whose physical condition leaves something to be desired. DISQUALIFIED must be awarded to a dog which does not correspond to the type required by the breed standard; which shows a behaviour clearly not in line with its standard or which behaves aggressively; which has testicular abnormalities; which has dental flaw or a jaw anomaly; which shows a colour and/or coat imperfection or clearly shows signs of albinism. This qualification shall also be awarded to dogs that correspond so little to a single feature of the breed that their health is threatened. It should furthermore be awarded to dogs that show eliminating faults in regard to the breed standard. In each class, except those of the baby show, awards will be made to at least four dogs and a maximum of ten dogs, other dogs will deserve a qualifier without classification. Those who do not meet the definitions above are not entitled to a qualifier.

CLAIMS
All claims based on these Regulations except those relating to judgments, since they are final, must be made in writing within one hour of the event which will be motivated and be accompanied by a deposit 100 € which will not be refunded by the organizer if, after examination, the claim is recognized without merit.

PENALTIES
May include the exclusion temporarily or permanently from exhibitions and competitions organized by the SADB, with possible extension to events organized by the associations affiliated to the SCC or by the SCC:
- Exhibitors who are found guilty of acts against honor,
- Those who have made a false statement,
- Those who have inflicted their dog any operation likely to mislead the quality of the animal,
- Those which by their language, their writings, their actions would hurt the success of the exhibition or impair the prestige of the judges or the Sponsor,
- Those who have surreptitiously introduced a dog not entered or entered a dog replaced by another,
- Those who have left the show before the appointed hour
- Belonging to a club or a company not affiliated with the SCC or an organization not recognized by the F.C.I. or participate in any capacity in a dog demonstration not recognized by the SCC, lead to its perpetrator and his dog, excluding any affiliated group and all events sponsored by the SCC.

RESPONSIBILITY
The organizer assumes no liability for theft, loss, escape, sickness, death of exposed animals, bites caused by them ... and in some cases or for any reason whatsoever.

Exhibitors are solely responsible for the fairground accidents and other damage caused by their dogs, both to others to themselves. The organizer can not be held responsible in any way in their place. By the mere fact of the entry of their dogs, exhibitors agree absolutely and unconditionally, all articles of this regulation, which they acknowledge having.

All cases provided for in this regulation and all the views on its interpretation will be judged by the Committee of the exhibition (cf. paragraph claims)

CONFIRMATION OF DOGS
Judges will reject any confirmation's form, where the application was not properly completed and signed by the owner. If in doubt, the identification card,(tattoo or transponder) with the pedigree of the dog to confirm are proof.
